

Halton Lodge Primary School

Aims of Our School

To be a happy harmonious community where good relationships are underpinned by mutual respect and kindness.

To be an inclusive school and to establish practice which ensures, in all aspects of our work, that every pupil is given equality of opportunity, regardless of gender, special needs, disability or race.

To provide teaching and learning of the highest quality.

To treat pupils as individuals and to differentiate teaching and learning to take account of their individual and special needs.

To match teaching and learning to the appropriate stage of children's physical, mental, social, spiritual, moral and cultural development needs.

To nurture children's spiritual moral and social development and help them grow in self-confidence and self-esteem.

To ensure that all pupils benefit from a rich, broad, balanced curriculum presented in an interesting, exciting and imaginative manner with many opportunities for first-hand experience, practical work, investigation and learning through play.

To enliven and enrich the curriculum by visits, visitors, and use of the environment wherever possible.

To teach basic skills and core subjects well and to give great emphasis to the foundation subjects and RE, especially to the creative aspects, including art, poetry, story, dance, music, and performance. This will be central to our work through our creative curriculum.

To promote and achieve high standards.

To make connections between subjects and to apply basic skills across the curriculum.

To set and demonstrate high expectations and high standards.

To treat all fairly and listen to others sympathetically and attentively.

To expect and maintain high standards of behaviour, courtesy and politeness at all levels so that all are treated well.

To contribute to the life and work of the school with energy and enthusiasm

To promote success and reward progress and achievement.

To make parents and the wider community equal partners with the school.

To build a welcoming, friendly, bright and lively, happy place where children feel secure and where they enjoy growing up.

Happy Learning Promotes Success!
